

Special Education Teacher Job Description

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of special education teacher. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for special education teacher

- Attend professional developments and turn key information to the learning community
- Subjects to clients in order to help them learn the subject matter and/or skills
- Provide targeted small group instruction to students throughout the day
- Provide direct service to students to help them achieve their IEP goals
- Work collaboratively with grade level teams across content areas
- Assist Teachers with differentiation in the classroom
- Participate as part of the student intervention referral team
- Support with assessment of students as proctors and monitors of examinations, including the administration of testing accommodations
- Provide a range of instructional, management, and assessment strategies to meet the different needs of students
- Facilitate testing accommodations

Qualifications for special education teacher

- Assist in moving students to proper locations during fire drills, and sports or arts programs
- Ensure all substitute plans are clear and thorough
- Keep accurate and organized records of student information
- Teaching pullout sections, depending upon the enrollment of students with disabilities and summer school results
- Implement the City on a Hill Special Education inclusion model
- Create and update master accommodations/modifications spreadsheet for general education reference